

A photograph of a restaurant interior. In the foreground, a table is set with white plates, glasses, and a white ceramic container. A large, leafy green plant stands behind the table. A glowing, spherical pendant light hangs from the ceiling. In the background, a bar area is visible with a person working behind the counter. The text "Sushi d'Aro" is written in a white, cursive font across the middle of the image, with "日本語" written in a smaller, black font below it.
